LOT PURCHASES

Lots can be purchased during normal business hours, and must be paid in advance before deed will be issued or digging takes place. Lot prices are subject to change.

Lot owners may grant permission by written order for burial of other than immediate family in their lot. Control of lots may be transferred to heirs, but the person who possesses the deed controls the lot.

Miami Township does not repurchase lots. Records maintained by the Township are binding, unless the Board of Trustees determines otherwise.

Bequests and donations are appreciated to help defer costs of burials For those who may not be able to afford it.They can be made to the Cemetery Bequest Fund. Additional information is available at the Miami Township Service Department at (513) 248-3728
